LONDON.

Last Night arriv'd a Mail from Holland.

They write from Berlin, that the King of Prussia having receiv'd the Homage of his Subjects at Königsberg on the 9th Inst. return'd thither on the 10th.

Letters from Hanover of the 15th say, that never seen so many English Messengers at that Court as there are now, and that the Clerks of the Secretaries Office are so busy in writing Dispatches about Affairs relating to the British Government and Interests, that they are very seldom at any of the publick entertainments.

From Petersburg, that on the 27th ult. M. Wolof, formerly Great Huntsman and Minister of the Court, was executed on a Scaffold erected near the street together with five of his Accomplices; that he first his Right Hand cut off and then his Head; afterwards M. Jeropkin, Surveyor of the Buildings, and M. Chruscow, one of the Commissioners of Admiralty, were beheaded; and that M. Soimon, Vice-President of the Admiralty and Commissary-General, and M. Eickler, Secretary of the Cabinet, were also condemn'd to die, but that the Czars having spar'd their Lives, the former receiv'd Bastinadoes with the Knout, and the latter 25; after which they were to be banish'd for their Lives. M. Suda, Secretary of Foreign Affairs, who was whipp'd. 'Tis added, that a Battalion of the Foot-guards attended round the Scaffold, and that after this Execution Proclamation was made, that shortly the Publick should be acquainted both with the Crime and the Punishment of the President of the Chamber of Commerce, and some other Persons.

The Letters from Rome, which are of the 5th Instant, say, that a Mob ran about the Streets on the 29th ult. at Night, arm'd with Clubs, crying out, that they would have Cardinal Gorii for Pope; and that the Cardinals in the Conclave are so incommoded with the Heat of the Weather that they have propos'd to open the Library of the Vatican for the sake of fresh Air.

We have the Pleasure of acquainting the Publick, that the Letters from Virginia of the 20th of May which advis'd of the Death of General Spotswood are contradicted by others of the 7th of June, which inform us he had been very ill, but was then much better, and in a fair Way of Recovery.

By Letters from Carolina of May 27, we hear, that one of our Men of War had sunk a Sloop from the Havana for St. Augustine, and taken another bound from St. Augustine to the Havana, on board which were Letters advising that they expected every Day to be attack'd by the English, and that they had not Provisions to hold out much above a Fortnight.

The Bonetta Sloop of War, Capt. Young, of 8 Guns and 70 Men, who is arriv'd at Plymouth from Oporto, off of Cape Finisterre was engaged 4 Hours with a Spanish Privateer of 24 Guns and 180 Men; in the Action his Lieutenant, Mr. Bradley, was wounded: Also off of Villa de Conde, a little to the Northward of Oporto, he saw two open Privateer Boats from Galicia, but they would not come near him.

The Friendship, Story, from Lisbon, arriv'd at Oporto the 4th Instant, in his Passage about Sixty Leagues Westward of the Land saw about 58 to 60 Ships, which he supposed by their Steering bound for the West Indies.

The Falcon, Young, from Africa, arrived at the Mouth of York River the 31st of May last, bound to Maryland; she was chas'd 6 Hours by a Spanish Privateer off of the Capes of Virginia.

Two Dutch Men of War from Cadix are arriv'd at Portsmouth, who say they saw 15 large Ships in the Mouth of the Bay of Biscay, but did not speak with them.

Yesterday was held a Board of Admiralty, when their Lordships were pleas'd to appoint Lieutenant William Murray to be Captain of the Trial Sloop, in the Room of Capt. Cooper, who has resign'd.

Yesterday Orders were issued out from the Lord Chamberlain's Office, for the Court to change their Mourning To-morrow on account of the Death of the late King of Prussia.

The Men to wear Black Cloaths, colour'd Swords and Buckles.

The Ladies to wear Black Silk or Velvet, colour'd Ribbons, Fans, and Tippets.

On Thursday last Dr. Harris, an eminent Surgeon in Queen-street, Westminster, was married to Miss Hill, Daughter to Mr. Hill late the King's Hoiser, deceased, a beautiful young Lady, and a Fortune of 3000 l.

On Monday next the Justices of the Peace for the City and Liberty of Westminster will meet at Westminster-Hall, pursuant to their last Adjournment.

Yesterday 31 Days Subsistence for his Majesty's Forces was issued out from the Pay-Office at Whitehall, from the 25th instant to the 24th of August inclusive.

On Thursday Night last Mr. Morgan, a Master Milkman in good Circumstances, hang'd himself at his House in Green-street near Grosvenor-square. He attempted to drown himself the same Day in the Morning in the Serpentine River in Hyde Park, but was prevented.

This Day the Coroner's Inquest will sit on him. Yesterday the several Workmen began to pull down the Houses in the Woolstaple and Channell-Row, Westminster, in order to make the Way more commodious for the intended Bridge at Westminster, pursuant to the late Act of Parliament.

The same Day they began to erect Scaffolding in Westminster-Hall, in order to repair the Roof thereof which is gone much to Decay, and likewise for new Leading the same.

Yesterday Morning at three o'Clock the Dwelling-house of Mr. John Smith in Berwick-street, Soho, was broke open, and robbed of a great Quantity of Wearing Linnen of his and his Wife's, most of which were mark'd with the Initial Letters of their Names; so that it is hop'd the Reguea will be the sooner detected.

All the Twenty Gun Ships lately rebuilt, are order'd to be mann'd forthwith.

Four thousand Land-Forces are daily expected to be draughted out of the Marching Regiments of Foot, in order to be sent abroad.

Yesterday Francis Parr was committed to Newgate by Col. De Veil, for stealing out of a Field near Hatfield in Hertfordshire a Black Mare, the Property of Mr. Thomas Usher. As was Ann Morris to the Gatehouse by the same Gentleman, for feloniously stealing out of the House of Mrs. Ann Hall, of Charles-street, Covent-Garden, a Quantity of China, and some Wearing Apparel found upon her.

To the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Essex.

Notice is hereby given, That a General Meeting is intended of the Freeholders of the said County, in order to nominate Two proper Persons to represent the said County at the ensuing General Election of Members of Parliament: Of which Meeting further Notice will be given in this Paper; and the Freeholders in the mean Time are desired not to engage their Votes.

Custom-House, London, July 26. 1740.

THE Commissioners appointed for the Sale of the St. Joseph and St. Jago Prizes give Notice, That on Wednesday the 27th of August next will be put up to Sale, publicly by Auction, to the highest Bidder, in the Long Room at the Custom-House, London, at Four of the Clock in the Afternoon, the Ship St. Jago Prize, with her Tackle, Apparel, and Furniture, now lying at Woolwich. An Inventory of the said Ship, with her Tackle, Apparel, and Furniture, and the Conditions of Sale, may be had at the King's Warehouse in the Custom-House, and on Board the said Ship at Woolwich.

General Post-Office, London, July 25, 1740.

WHEREAS divers Persons thro' Ignorance or Carelessness, frequently put Letters into the General Post Offices and the Receiving-Houses both in Town and Country, directed on Board of Ships, and to Foreign Parts, without paying at the same Time the Postage, as ought to be done: And whereas Letters and Packets are often put into the said Offices with Money and Rings inclosed; and in Fraud of His Majesty's Revenue divers Persons presume to send Letters with False and Counterfeit Franks:

This is to acquaint the Publick, That no Letters under any of the Circumstances aforesaid will be forwarded.

Note, That Letters going out of Great Britain (except to France, Holland, and Flanders) have by the ancient Usage of this Office paid the Foreign Postage, and are required by the Act of Parliament so to do, at the Office in Great Britain where the same are first put in.

Note also, That if such Letters to Foreign Parts are put into any of the Country Offices, the Inland Postage of such Letters to London must also be paid, on putting the same into such Office.

By Command of the Postmaster General,
J. D. Barbutt, Sec.
